

IIHSA Day School 2017

Migrations in the Ancient World

Saturday 4 November

UCD Belfield, Newman Building (Room To Be Confirmed)

9.45-10.00            Registration

Morning session

10.15            Opening

10.30            Dr Christine Morris (TCD) People on the move: migration and identity in ancient Cyprus.

11.00            Dr Barry Molloy (UCD) The Collapse of the Bronze Age world: rethinking the Dorian migrations.

11.30            Coffee

12.00            Dr Edward Herring (NUI Galway) Why leave home? The motivations for the Greek colonisation of Italy.

12.30 pm        Dr Eric Haywood (UCD) Migrants and the Foundation of Rome.

13.00 pm        Questions

13.15 pm        Lunch break

Afternoon session

14.30 pm        Prof. Anna Chahoud (TCD) Roots and Routes: Ancient European Languages.

15.00 pm        Dr Jacopo Tabolli (TCD) Dance, then, wherever you may be. Addressing mobility (real or fake?) between the Etruscans and the 'first' Greeks along the Tiber.

15.30 pm        Dr Sarah Wilson (UCD) What is "Foreign"? Syrian Cults in Rome.

16.00 pm        Dr Philip deSouza (UCD) Rome and the Barbarians.

16.30 pm        Questions and closing

17.00 pm        Reception offered by ODAIOS FOODS in K217